

YARD ENGINEER RESIGNS AFTER FAILING TO REPORT CRIMINAL HISTORY

Activity Date: March 20, 2018

Web Summary: OIG-WS-2018-315

On October 4, 2017, we received information that indicated that a Yard Engineer, Washington, D.C., failed to disclose to Amtrak (the company) two criminal convictions, one in 2012 and the other in 2017.

The employee's failure to disclose his 2012 and 2017 convictions violated various company policies, which require truthful, honest, and ethical conduct, in addition to a reporting requirement for criminal convictions within three days to Human Resources.

On March 15, 2018, the company removed the employee from service, and on March 20, 2018, the employee submitted his resignation in lieu of an administrative hearing.

Date Posted: 3/27/2018

OIG Investigative Case Number: DC-18-0162-O