

THREE EMPLOYEES TERMINATED FOR USING IMPROPERLY OBTAINED PARKING PASSES

Activity Date: April 25, 2018

Web Summary: OIG-WS-2018-322

Three employees were terminated from employment on April 25, 2018, for violating company policy by using improperly obtained parking passes to avoid paying parking fees at Chicago Union Station and for not fully cooperating with OIG agents.

In addition, six other individuals -- not employed by Amtrak -- have been arrested on charges related to this case. Three have been convicted for theft charges in the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois, while judicial proceedings are pending for the others.

Amtrak OIG conducted this joint investigation with the Amtrak Police Department.
