Former Amtrak Employee Stole GSA Fuel Cards
Case Number 09-009
May 4, 2010

A cooperating witness reported that a former Amtrak employee stole GSA fuel cards and used them to purchase fuel for other people. Agents worked with GSA OIG to substantiate the allegation through review of documents and interviews. The former employee pled guilty to theft of government property. The former employee was sentenced to 3 years probation with a special condition to reside in a half way house for 10 months. Restitution to Amtrak of $17,000 was ordered by the court.
