

EMPLOYEE SENTENCED FOR DISTRIBUTION OF DRUGS

Activity Date: November 1, 2017

Web Summary: OIG-WS-2018-308

On November 1, 2017, the Pennsylvania Court of Common Pleas of Bucks County sentenced an Amtrak B&B Mechanic Foreman to 6-23 months of confinement and 36 months' probation for the Manufacture, Delivery, or Possession with the Intent to Manufacture or Deliver narcotics. The employee was involved in a steroid manufacturing operation where he ordered chemicals from China, manufactured the steroids on his property, and then distributed the drugs within the Bucks County vicinity. The conviction was the result of a Drug Enforcement Administration Task Force operation with the Bucks County District Attorney's Office. Our office assisted in the investigation.
