

CONVICTION FOR THEFT OF AMTRAK PROPERTY

Activity Date: September 27, 2017

Web Summary: OIG-WS-2018-306

On September 27, 2017, a former Amtrak electrician pleaded guilty in the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois, to theft of Amtrak property. He was sentenced to two days in jail (time considered served), two years of probation and was ordered to pay $1,199.57 in restitution.

Our office investigated this case in cooperation with the Amtrak Police Department. The employee was arrested on August 3, 2016 for theft of company tools and equipment. The employee resigned from the company prior to his administrative hearing.