

EMPLOYEE TERMINATED FOR MISREPRESENTING ROLE AT COMPANY TO OUTSIDE PARTIES AND SEEKING PERSONAL IDENTIFYING INFORMATION

Activity Date: February 23, 2026

Date Posted: March 17, 2026

Case Number: 25-0107-I

Web Summary: OIG-WS-2026-312

An Amtrak extra board train attendant based in Seattle, Washington, was terminated from employment on February 23, 2026, following his administrative hearing. Our investigation found that the former employee violated company policies by misrepresenting his role at the company to two individuals, inappropriately seeking their personal identifying information, and sending internal company information to outside parties. The former employee is not eligible for rehire.
