

EMPLOYEE RESIGNS IN LIEU OF TERMINATION FOR CREDIT CARD FRAUD

Activity Date: August 25, 2026

Date Posted: September 21, 2026

Case Number: 26-0038-I

Web Summary: OIG-WS-2026-348

An Amtrak assistant passenger conductor based in Washington, D.C., resigned from the company on August 26, 2026, prior to his administrative hearing. Our investigation found that the former employee used credit cards he found in a passenger's wallet that was left behind on a train to make unauthorized purchases. The former employee is not eligible for rehire.
