EMPLOYEE LEAVES JOBSITE TO WORK OUT
SEPTEMBER 30, 2014
CASE OIG-I-2014-515

We received an anonymous report that an employee consistently left the jobsite without authorization during the workday to work out at a local health club facility. We compared a summary of the employee's attendance at the health club to Amtrak payroll as well as sign-in/sign-out logs and determined that the employee was absent during the workday on several occasions during a three month period. The employee was dismissed as the result of a company hearing.
