3. Name Change Options – Unlike standard tickets, group bookings may allow name substitutions before final ticketing.

Step-by-Step: How to Book a Group Flight on Delta Airlines

Step 1: Contact Delta's Group Desk

The most reliable way to start is by calling 1-877-245-9984 or 1-844-496-2820. Explain your group size, destination, and travel dates. Agents are trained to handle group itineraries and can instantly provide quotes.

Step 2: Get a Custom Quote

Delta will prepare a group fare proposal based on your passenger count and preferred flights. This quote usually remains valid for a limited time (often 24–72 hours).

Step 3: Pay a Deposit

To hold your group reservation, Delta typically requires a deposit per passenger. This guarantees that your seats remain reserved until the final payment deadline.

Step 4: Share Passenger Details

Closer to the travel date, you'll submit the final list of passenger names. If someone drops out, you can usually make a substitution.

Step 5: Finalize Payment & Receive Tickets

Once the balance is paid, Delta will issue the group's e-tickets, ensuring everyone is confirmed on the same flight.

Pro Tips for Group Bookings with Delta

- Book Early – Group seats are limited, and booking several months in advance often locks in lower fares.
