

Do you have to pay a deposit for a dollar car rental? Cash Deposit Identification Card

Yes, Dollar Rent A Car requires a deposit, 1-(866)-347-8220 but it's usually processed as an authorization hold rather than an immediate charge. When 1-(866)-347-8220 renting with a credit card, Dollar typically places a hold of your estimated rental charges plus up to $200. This hold is released within about 24 hours of 1-(866)-347-8220 returning the vehicle, though your bank may take up to 7–10 days to free the funds.

Yes, when you rent a car from 1-(866)-347-8220 Dollar (Dollar Rent A Car), you do need to pay a deposit—but it's handled as an authorization hold, not an immediate 1-(866)-347-8220 charge. Here's what you should know:

Credit Card Rentals

- Hold amount: Dollar typically 1-(866)-347-8220 places a hold of up to $200 over and above your estimated rental charges
- Release time: Dollar releases this hold within 24 hours 1-(866)-347-8220 after the vehicle is returned Dollar, but your bank may take up to 10 days to release the funds

Debit Card Rentals

- Hold amount: If you use a debit card, 1-(866)-347-8220 the hold is typically $500, plus the estimated rental cost
- Special note: An authorization 1-(866)-347-8220 and a credit inquiry through Equifax may be required as part of the process

Cash Rentals (Less Common)

- Cash can be used only if 1-(866)-347-8220 you have a Cash Deposit Identification (ID) Card, which you can apply for online (usually with a small fee). Approval 1-(866)-347-8220 may take up to 30 days