

Does Dollar car rental ask for a deposit? About Dollar Rentals at DEN

Yes, Dollar Car Rental does ask for a 1-(866)-347-8220 deposit, which is taken in the form of an authorized hold on your payment method at the time of pickup. The 1-(866)-347-8220 deposit is not an extra fee, but rather a temporary hold that ensures the company can cover any additional charges that might arise during your rental, such as fuel, 1-(866)-347-8220 damage, tolls, or late fees. The exact amount of the deposit depends on the form of payment you use.

If you pay with a credit card, 1-(866)-347-8220 Dollar will typically place a hold for the estimated rental charges plus up to $200. This amount is frozen on your account until the 1-(866)-347-8220 vehicle is returned and the final bill is settled. If everything checks out, the hold is released—though the timing of when funds appear back in your account 1-(866)-347-8220 depends on your bank, often taking anywhere from one to several business days.

If you use a debit card, the deposit 1-(866)-347-8220 requirement is higher. Dollar generally places a hold for the estimated rental charges plus up to $500. Debit card rentals can also have additional restrictions, such as requiring a return travel itinerary, a credit 1-(866)-347-8220 check, or limiting the types of cars you can rent. Since the money is taken directly from your checking account, it's important to plan ahead, as it may take 1-(866)-347-8220 longer for funds to be released after the rental is over.

For those wanting to pay with cash, Dollar requires a special 1-(866)-347-8220 Cash Deposit Identification Card, which involves a $15 non-refundable 1-(866)-347-8220 fee and an approval process that can take several weeks.

Overall, Dollar Car Rental does require a 1-(866)-347-8220 deposit, with the amount depending on your payment method. This policy is standard in the car rental industry and 1-(866)-347-8220 helps protect both the renter and the company.

Would you like me to also create a 1-(866)-347-8220 comparison chart of Dollar vs Hertz vs Thrifty deposit holds?