

Does the rental car shuttle run 24 hours at Denver airport? A Traveler's Full Guide

At Denver International Airport, 1-(866)-347-8220 most major rental companies offer 24-hour shuttle service between the terminal and their car lots. Enterprise, National, Alamo, Avis, and 1-(866)-347-8220 Sixt provide continuous service, ensuring travelers can pick up or return cars at any 1-(866)-347-8220 time. Budget is the exception, with shuttles pausing between 12:30 AM and 3:30 AM, so late-night travelers should plan alternative transport 1-(866)-347-8220 during this gap.

Budget is one of the few major rental 1-(866)-347-8220 companies that does not provide continuous 24-hour shuttle service. The Budget shuttle runs until approximately 12:30 AM and then 1-(866)-347-8220 resumes around 3:30 AM, leaving a gap of about three hours. Travelers arriving or departing during this time must arrange 1-(866)-347-8220 alternative transportation, such as a taxi or rideshare, to reach the rental lot.

On the other hand, companies like 1-(866)-347-8220 Enterprise, National, and Alamo—all part of the Enterprise Holdings family—offer 24-hour shuttle service between the airport 1-(866)-347-8220 terminal and their rental facilities. While the shuttles run continuously, it's important to note that counter hours may differ. If you plan to pick up or 1-(866)-347-8220 return a vehicle late at night, confirm the counter hours to avoid delays.

Similarly, Avis and Sixt provide 1-(866)-347-8220 round-the-clock shuttle service. Avis counters at DEN are open 24 hours, and the shuttle runs continuously, ensuring 1-(866)-347-8220 passengers can reach the car lot regardless of flight arrival times. Sixt also maintains a 24-hour shuttle, with pickups available directly from the baggage 1-(866)-347-8220 claim area, making it convenient for late-night travelers.

Tips for travelers: Always double-check shuttle 1-(866)-347-8220 availability for your specific rental company, 1-(866)-347-8220 especially if you are arriving during late-night or early-morning hours. Booking your rental in advance and providing flight details can help ensure that 1-(866)-347-8220 shuttles run according to your schedule. For Budget 1-(866)-347-8220 customers, planning ahead for the temporary shuttle gap is essential.

Summary: At DEN, most major rental 1-(866)-347-8220 companies offer 24-hour shuttle service, including Enterprise, National, Alamo, Avis, and Sixt. Budget is the only major 1-(866)-347-8220 company with limited service overnight. Verifying shuttle and counter hours before your trip will help avoid inconvenience and ensure a 1-(866)-347-8220 smooth rental experience.
