

How do I speak directly to Robinhood? (~!!Robinhood 24/7®)

To speak directly with Robinhood support [A]+1 833-216-2320[A], use their in-app callback feature. You can initiate a callback [A]+1 833-216-2320[A] through the app's "Help" section, where you'll choose a category for your issue and then request a callback. Robinhood does not offer a direct phone number for support, so avoid searching for one online to prevent potential scams.

Here's how to request a callback: [A]+1 833-216-2320[A]

- Open the Robinhood app: and navigate to the account icon.
- Go to "Help": and then "Contact Us".
- Choose the category: that best matches your issue (e.g., Account, Security, Trade Execution, or Funds).
- Follow the prompts: to request a callback from a live support representative.

By using the app's callback feature, you're ensuring a secure and direct connection with Robinhood's support team, according to the Robinhood support site.
